

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVROIR
INSTITUTE

USEFUL INFORMATION

MAY 6, 1994

NOTE: Most items in this Bulletin are from the mail we receive on a regular basis. We simply pass this information along to you for your interest.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES, JOBS, NEWS OF INTEREST

COLLOQUES

L'ACEAS (Association canadienne-française pour l'avancement des sciences) présente son 62e congrès "Sciences en mouvement" du 16 au 20 mai à l'UQAM. Jeudi, le 19 mai le colloque "Des pédagogies féministes...modèle en émergence et construit collectif" aura lieu de 9h à 12h. Pour renseignements, contactez Claudie Solar, Université d'Ottawa (613) 564-7750.

Le service aux femmes immigrantes et à leur famille du Centre des femmes de Montréal organise un colloque "Le couple immigrant: favoriser une intégration harmonieuse" jeudi, le 19 mai au Centre St-Pierre, 1205, rue de la Visitation (métro Beaudry). Le nombre de places est limité. Cotisation: 35$ (inclusant le dîner). Inscription: 842-0814.

CONFERENCES

Health Workshop

A workshop at the Craftsbury Center Sports Resort will be held July 29-July 31 on "Transition: Health and Fitness Over Forty." The workshop will feature Janine O'Leary Cobb in a presentation on "Menopause and Hormones--How to Make the Best Decision for Yourself." The weekend fee of $220 U.S. includes bed, three meals, trail lunches and use of the sports facilities. Call 1-(800)-729-7751 for more information.

Social Ecology

The 4th Continental Conference on Social Ecology will be held Saturday and Sunday May 7-8 in the Hall Bldg. The Conference is sponsored by the Karl Polanyi Institute, the School of Community and Public Affairs, the Institute for Social Ecology and the Québec Public Interest Research Groups at McGill and Concordia. Register by calling QPRIG at 848-7585 or on Saturday in the Hall Bldg.

L. M. Montgomery Symposium

A new affiliate of the University of Prince Edward Island, The L. M. Montgomery Institute, invites you to their first international symposium "L.M. Montgomery and Her Works," which will be held June 23-36, 1994. Dr. Elizabeth Epperly, Montgomery scholar and chair of the Institute's committee, will be the moderator of the symposium.

EVENTS

NFB Film Premier

The NFB, the Concordia Ukrainian Students' Association in cooperation with the Ukrainian Canadian Congress, Montreal Branch invite you to the premier of "Freedom had a Price," a documentary on Canada's first internment operation, on Thursday, May 12 in the Hall Bldg, Room 110 at 19:30.

C.G. Jung Society of Montreal
Jacqueline Wilson will present a weekend art workshop at Le centre des arts visuels, 350 Victoria Avenue in Westmount May 13-15. This is the fourth annual renewal workshop and will focus on the role of Hermes, the creative spark, in the goddess Persephone's return from the underworld. Art materials will be supplied but participants are requested to bring a personal journal. Attendance is limited. Cost: $144.66. To register, call 488-9559.

NSERC Women's Faculty Award

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics invites nominations for the NSERC Women's Faculty Award, to start July 1, 1995. Nominations will be accepted until October 15, 1994. Please refer to the "academic" board for complete details.

JOBS

Carleton University, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering, tenure-track position (subject to budgetary approval) Assistant Professor level, July 1, 1994. Apply before May 31.

Carleton University, School of Industrial Design, Visiting Professor at the Assistant or Associate level, August 1, 1994.

UQAM, Département de kinanthropologie, (2) postes de professeurs/es réguliers/ères en neurocinétique, et un poste en intervention pédagogique et formation pratique, le 1er juillet, 1994. Faites parvenir votre c.v. avant le 13 mai.

NEWS OF INTEREST

The Lacolle Centre is now accepting applications for the months of September thru December, 1994. Written requests are due by June 1, 1994. Call Diane Moffat at ext. 4955 for more information.

The names of the twenty-nine winners of the Killam Research Fellowships has been posted on the "academic" board.

Joan Sherwood is looking for accommodation for one to two weeks in June, preferably close to McGill. If you have a room or apartment to rent or would like to exchange quarters close to Queen's campus in Kingston, write to Joan Sherwood, Department of History, Kingston, K7L 3N6 or telephone home: (613) 542-1707; office: (613) 545-2150.

Remember to consult all the bulletin boards for information about new journals, books, summer programmes, conferences and workshops.

The Reading Room Hours will vary now that classes are over. As always, books may be returned to the Institute office during regular office hours.